DOHA: Mohamed Kanno struck in the 115th minute to seal a 2-1 extra-time victory for Saudi Arabia over Palestine, sending the Green Falcons into the FIFA Arab Cup semi-finals at Lusail Stadium last night.

Feras Albrikan had opened the scoring from the penalty spot in the 58th minute, before Oday Dabbagh equalised six minutes later, pushing the thrilling quarter-final into extra-time in front of more than 77,000 fans in a mixed-support crowd.

Kanno delivered the decisive moment, rising to meet a precise cross from captain Salem Al Dawsari - who had also won the earlier penalty - as Herve Renard's side stayed firmly on course in their title pursuit.

"We weren't at our usual level, but the most important thing is the win and reaching the semi-finals. We look forward to continuing our journey successfully, and our goal is the title," said Kanno after steering his side to victory.

Saudi Arabia's Mohamed Kanno celebrates after scoring the winner.

The Green Falcons will now face the winner of today's quarter-final between Iraq and Jordan in Monday's semi-final.

Despite the defeat, Ihab Abu Jazar's Palestine exited the tournament with immense pride. They reached the finals through qualifiers - beating Libya - before topping a group that included Asian champions and hosts Qatar, last edition's runners-up Tunisia and Syria.

The Lions of Canaan fought bravely throughout the contest and pushed Saudi Arabia to the limit in a gripping clash.

Action remained largely in the middle of the park early on, with both teams vying for control.

Al Dawsari, returning after being rested against Morocco, made the first attempt in the 10th minute, but his shot was deflected by Michael Termanini for a corner.

Musab Battat led the defensive effort for Palestine, repeatedly intercepting Saudi attacks in the final third.

Hamed Hamdan tested the opposition from distance with a powerful effort over the bar, while Ali Majrashi's long-range attempt also sailed high, as clear-cut chances went begging.

Despite controlling possession, Saudi Arabia were repeatedly frustrated by resolute defending.

The deadlock continued when Hamdan made a crucial clearance, hitting away a cross from Al Dawsari that had slipped from goalkeeper Hamada Rami and was heading for an unmarked Albrikan.

Palestine started the second half strongly, winning back-to-back set-pieces. Saudi Arabia responded when Al Dawsari surged down the left, brilliantly sprinting past defenders before being brought down by Mohammed Saleh.

The referee immediately pointed to the spot, and Albrikan calmly converted with a low strike to the left, sending Rami the wrong way.

Palestine quickly equalised through Ameed Sawafta's assist to Dabbagh, who slotted home from the centre of the box.

Majrashi came close to restoring the lead with a strike that rattled the crossbar, while Rami denied Al Dawsari's close-range header. Dabbagh also went close as both sides searched for a winner.

In stoppage time, Kanno's potential winner was ruled offside, and Palestine were fortunate when VAR cleared Saleh for an apparent handball in the final moments before extra time.

The extra time saw a flurry of chances at both ends, with Saudi Arabia piling on pressure late in the second half. Kanno finally delivered the decisive blow, rising to head home from close range and break Palestinian hearts.

Azaro strike powers Morocco past Syria to semi-finals

THE PENINSULA

DOHA: Morocco booked a place in the FIFA Arab Cup Qatar 2025 semi-finals after a hard-fought 1-0 victory over Syria at the Khalifa International Stadium yesterday.

Substitute Walid Azaro was the hero for the Atlas Lions, scoring in the 79th minute and later being named Player of the Match.

Picking up a pass from Sabir Bougrine, Morocco's Mounir Chouiar struck from outside the box, but the ball was pushed away low to the left by Syrian goalkeeper Elias Hadaya. Azaro was well placed and reacted quickly to the rebound, firing from the centre of the area into the middle of the net to finally break the deadlock.

The victory booked Morocco a place in the Arab Cup semi-finals for a third occasion in the tournament's history, and coach Tarik Sektioui praised his players' reaction and tactical discipline which contributed to their success in Qatar this time.

"We are grateful to the players. The key in the second half was to keep possession better and reduce our technical mistakes," Sektioui said.

"We also had to manage the gaps between the lines and exploit the flanks, because the opposition sets up in a compact defensive block. We needed to use the wings better, and that is exactly what the players did."

Syria, who battled through the qualifiers to reach the group stage before making it to the quarter-finals, once again showed resilience.

They matched Morocco in terms of ball possession for most of the encounter and gave the North Africans little chance to shine.

Hadaya was particularly impressive, making seven crucial saves throughout the match.

The Norway-based goalkeeper tipped an early strike from Amin Zahzouh over the bar before Morocco were forced into an early change when one of their key players, Tarik Tissoudali, went off injured.

After the interval, Morocco increased the pressure, seeking an opener and keeping Hadaya busy.

Hadaya was forced to make several crucial saves in the later part of the match, including efforts by Oussama Tannane, Karim El Berkaoui and Marwane Saddane.

The breakthrough finally arrived through Azaro's quick reaction as Morocco took control of the match.

Morocco were forced to endure a tense finish after substitute midfielder Mohammed Moufid, introduced in the 87th minute, was sent off in the first minute of second-half stoppage time.

Despite the setback, the Atlas Lions defended well through eight minutes of added time to maintain their narrow advantage.

Syrian star Omar Khribin expressed pride in his team's campaign.

"That is football.. Honestly, I think what we have achieved is something to be proud of," Khribin said.

"We would have preferred to continue in the tournament, but that is football, you are playing against a very strong team. Thank God, and we promise the Syrian fans that the future will be even better."

Morocco will face the winner of today's quarter-final clash between Algeria and the UAE.

Jordan look to extend perfect run against Iraq

THE PENINSULA

DOHA: Jordan will look to maintain their flawless momentum when they face regional rivals Iraq in a highly anticipated FIFA Arab Cup quarter-final at Education City Stadium today.

The Nashama have been one of the standout teams of the tournament, sweeping through a challenging Group C with victories over the UAE, Kuwait and Egypt to finish as group winners.

Head coach Jamal Sellami said meetings between the two nations always carry "a special character," especially on Qatari soil and in a tournament that has drawn strong crowds and high praise for its organisation.

"This is a very important match for us," Sellami said in the pre-match press conference.

"Now we enter a new knockout competition. We have a great ambition to win, and this requires greater focus, effectiveness, and a character above the ordinary because the opponent is strong. We must be at a high level and serious in order to qualify for the next matches, The Iraqi team has players who pose a danger at any moment when we lose focus."

Sellami said Jordan's perfect group-stage run has added belief and maturity within the squad.

"We achieved positive results in the first round, we gained character and improved performance, and all our players gained competitive experience," he said.

"I told the players the knockout stage has other considerations. If we want to win, we must maintain the same mentality and continue the level we showed."

Goalkeeper Nour Bani Attiah echoed his coach's confidence.

"We played three very important matches. We completed one leg, and now we have a bigger and more important one ahead of us," he said.

"The Iraqi team is a great team, and Jordan are ready to deliver a great match and achieve the goal."

Iraq, who finished runners-up in Group D behind defending champions Algeria after wins over Bahrain and Sudan, are bracing for what head coach

Jordan coach Jamal Sellami.

Graham Arnold called a "difficult and demanding" knockout test.

"Jordan impressed everyone with three wins, and they are strong contenders for the title," Arnold said.

"We need full physical and mental readiness to reach the semi-finals."

He confirmed striker Mohanad Ali may be fit to return, while goalkeeper Jalal Hassan is ruled out and midfielder Hussein Ali is suspended following his red card against Algeria.

"We will choose the best 11 based on fitness and focus," Arnold said. "Despite the absences, I have full confidence in my players."

Defender Saad Natiq added: "We know the challenge is tough for both sides, but we trust our group. We are ready and determined to advance."

Morocco include injured captain Hakimi in squad

JOHANNESBURG: Morocco included injured captain Achraf Hakimi (pictured) in a 26-man squad named yesterday for the 2025 Africa Cup of Nations.

The 27-year-old full-back sprained his ankle after being fouled playing for Paris Saint-Germain against Bayern Munich last month in the UEFA Champions League.

Speaking after the 2026 World Cup draw in Washington last Friday, head coach Walid Regragui said: "We hope he (Hakimi) will be available for our first match against the Comoros."

Hosts Morocco face the Comorans on December 21 in Rabat in the opening match of the biennial African football showpiece.

Referring to recently crowned 2025 African player of the year Hakimi, Regragui added: "He is doing better. He is improving. He wants to be here (Morocco). He is our leader, our captain."

Morocco are in Group A with the Comoros, Mali and Zambia. Group winners and runners-up qualify automatically for the knockout phase, along with the best four of the six third-placed teams.

Other Atlas Lions stars, including goalkeeper Yassine Bounou, Manchester United full-back Noussair Mazraoui, midfielder Sofyan Amrabat and striker Youssef En-Nesyri, have been selected.

Morocco are seeking to win the AFCON a second time. They drew with Guinea in 1976 in Ethiopia to finish first in a tournament consisting only of mini-leagues.

Only three of the 13 AFCON hosts this century -- Tunisia, Egypt and the Ivory Coast -- have been crowned champions. — AFP

FIFA Arab Cup Qatar 2025 Observation Programme gets underway

THE PENINSULA

DOHA: The FIFA Arab Cup Qatar 2025 Observation Programme is underway in Qatar, bringing together 55 representatives from football associations from across the world for five days of knowledge sharing and hands-on experience.

The initiative is organised by the tournament Local Organising Committee (LOC) and the Qatar Football Association, as part of ongoing efforts to share key learnings and insights from Qatar's extensive experience in hosting mega-sporting events.

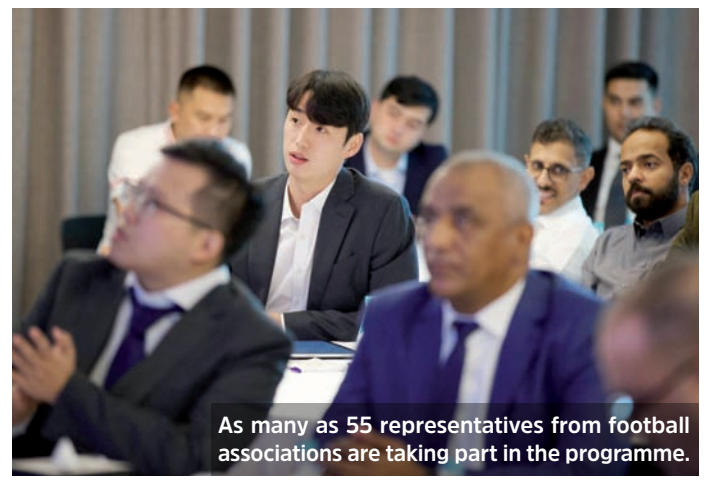

Participants in the programme will gain first-hand learnings from LOC operational teams across multiple functional areas, ranging from ticketing to medical, security and marketing rights delivery. This will include visits to key tournament sites, including stadiums, training sites, the Main Media Centre and accreditation centre.

"We created this programme because federations worldwide have been eager to learn from Qatar's success in hosting world-class events. Our achievements in sports and entertainment have made us a global reference point, and we're proud of that. Qatar consistently pushes boundaries to deliver exceptional experiences for fans and athletes alike. Sharing our expertise with industry partners is central to our commitment to building a legacy that extends far beyond any single event, creating sustainable impact across sectors," said Jassim Al Jassim, CEO, LOC.

Since hosting the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022, which was regarded as the best edition of the tournament in its history, Qatar has hosted a number of major sporting events including the AFC Asian Cup Qatar 2023.

Most recently, Qatar hosted the first 48-team FIFA U-17 World Cup, introducing a unique centralised hosting format that saw 104 matches played at a single venue.

In addition, Qatar is hosting the final three matches of the FIFA Intercontinental Cup Qatar 2025 during the rest days of the ongoing FIFA Arab Cup Qatar 2025, showcasing the country's exceptional organisational capabilities and the international football community's trust in its ability to deliver world-class football tournaments.

Taking part in the programme is Natasha Al Naber, Competitions Officer, West Asian Football Federation: "It's great to be in Qatar and be part of this knowledge-sharing opportunity. Qatar has successfully hosted a number of tournaments, especially the World Cup in 2022, which is one of the most impressive editions to date. By working with the organising committee in Qatar, we are able to better understand the various operational aspects involved in tournaments and how multiple stakeholders work together to deliver the event."

For Norman Gwangwadza, Head of Finance and Administration, Zimbabwe Football Association, Qatar's capabilities in hosting multiple sporting events at the same time have made it a leading global sports destination: "Qatar has proven to be excellent hosts yet again, with the delivery of the U-17 World Cup and the Arab Cup. Through this programme, I have learned that planning is key for delivering major tournaments, especially in areas of procurement, transportation and resource management."

Edna Nisola, Media and Marketing Committee Member, Northern Mariana Islands Football Association, says the programme has provided her with a fresh perspective on strategies to enhancing fan experiences: "It is an exciting time to be in Qatar. We are in the middle of a busy football season in the country. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn about what goes on behind the scenes when delivering a mega-sporting event."

U-23 Gulf Cup: Qatar, Saudi Arabia share points

THE PENINSULA

DOHA: Qatar and Saudi Arabia played out a 1-1 draw in their final Group A fixture of the AGCFF Under-23 Gulf Cup at Aspire Academy yesterday, with both sides already assured of a place in the semi-finals.

Qatar struck first through Mustafa Al Sayed in the 24th minute after a composed attacking move, giving the home side a deserved lead. Saudi Arabia pressed for an equaliser for long periods and were rewarded late on when Thamer Al Khaibari levelled in the 85th minute to keep his side unbeaten in the group.

Qatar players celebrate a goal yesterday.

The result means Saudi Arabia finish as Group A winners with seven points from three matches, ahead of Qatar on goal difference, with the hosts also collecting seven points from two wins and today's draw. Both teams had sealed qualification to the last four after the second round, which allowed their coaches to manage minutes and make changes while still maintaining a competitive edge.

Qatar opened their campaign with an impressive 3-0 victory over Kuwait before edging Bahrain 1-0 in their second outing to book a semi-final ticket with a match to spare. The young Qataris again showed good organisation and fighting spirit against a strong Saudi side, using the match to fine-tune their preparations for the knock-out stage.

Saudi Arabia underlined their strength with a powerful start to the tournament, defeating Bahrain 5-0 in their opener and following up with a 1-0 win over Kuwait. Their late equaliser against Qatar preserved top spot and maintained momentum heading into the semis.

Earlier, in the second match of the group, Kuwait defeated Bahrain 2-1. Ahmed Boodai opened the scoring for Kuwait in the 15th minute, before Montaser Suleiman doubled the lead from the penalty spot in the 31st minute. Bahrain replied through Ali Al Dosari in the 67th minute but could not complete the comeback.

Kuwait finished their campaign in third place with three points, while Bahrain exited the tournament without a point after three straight defeats.

Ex-United star Lingard scores on tearful farewell to South Korea

SEOUL: Former Manchester United and England star Jesse Lingard signed off with a goal in his final game for FC Seoul before bidding a tearful farewell to South Korean football after two seasons.

The 32-year-old former England international scored the opener in Seoul's 1-1 draw at home to Melbourne City in the AFC Champions League on Wednesday night, having announced days before it would be his last appearance for the club.

Lingard, who made 60 appearances for FC Seoul, broke down in tears after the match as he watched a video on the big screen which paid tribute to "Our beloved captain".

"Your name and legacy will always be remembered in the history of our club," it said. "Seoul will always be your home. Thank you, our captain."

Lingard, who joined the club in February last year, addressed and applauded the home fans before hugging his team-mates during a lap of honour.

He said on the eve of the game that he had spent "a happy two years" in South Korea.

"I've learned a lot, I've become more mature, I've had a lot of responsibility this year being captain," said the attacking midfielder, who played 32 times for England, including in the 2018 World Cup semi-final.

Lingard coolly slotted home in the 31st minute to put Seoul in front and celebrated with a Michael Jackson-style moonwalk.

In-form Algeria set for confident UAE in quarter-final

FAWAD HUSSAIN
THE PENINSULA

DOHA: With Algeria aiming to continue their title-defence march, the United Arab Emirates come in brimming with confidence for their FIFA Arab Cup quarter-final clash against the defending champions at Al Bayt Stadium tonight.

Madjid Bougherra's Algeria topped Group D after an unbeaten run, beating Bahrain and Iraq and showing sharp improvement after being held by Sudan in their opening match.

The North Africans have been holding training sessions since Wednesday following their victory over Iraq. Bougherra said there will be a few absences in the match but hoped the team will overcome the challenge.

"We know how to deal with our problems and have the solutions," the Algerian coach said on the eve of the quarter-final.

"We are aiming at giving our best and delivering the performance needed to continue our progress in the tournament," he said.

Veteran Yacine Brahimi, Redouane Berkane, Adil Boulbina and Achref Abada have been phenomenal in the tournament with the team scoring seven goals in the group stage, and the coach hoped his players will continue their good form in the knockout stage.

"I am proud of our players. There are good levels in all areas of the game, including midfield, defense, and possession. We must be present and ready for tomorrow's match. Currently all our focus is on the match and on this tournament," he said.

UAE players gear up for the quarter-final clash.

Algerian midfielder Victor Lekhal stressed the importance of presence of mind and complete readiness of players.

"The tournament matches have a fast-paced competitive character, and the important thing is to be present in terms of recovery. We are ready and prepared to play at our best," he said.

'There is no fear': UAE coach

Algeria – ranked 35th in the world – have been tipped to qualify for the semi-finals against the UAE, placed 32 places lower than their North African counterparts.

But UAE coach Cosmin Olaroiu expressed confidence in his players after a strong performance in the group stage.

After losing to Jordan, the UAE bounced back in the tournament, drawing against Egypt and beating Kuwait to advance from a tough Group D.

"There is no fear in our ranks. We have played against teams like Jordan and Egypt," said Olaroiu.

"Yes, it's a great challenge and we are motivated and confident of doing well."

The UAE coach added that playing in front of thousands of fans is a valuable experience for his side.

"We have young players whom we have given the opportunity to participate in this tournament, to get to know its atmosphere and benefit from its experiences," he said.

UAE goalkeeper Hamad Al-Muqbali added: "Our national team players gave their all and did not fall short. From the beginning, our goal was clear, which is to advance to the next round, and we must continue our steps with greater efforts."

The match will kick off at 8:30pm.

Tiding storms home to land Al Shaqab Cup at Al Rayyan

THE PENINSULA

DOHA: Tiding produced a dazzling late surge to claim the Al Shaqab Cup, a Thoroughbred Handicap (70–90) over 2200m, at Al Rayyan Racecourse yesterday.

The 4-year-old chestnut colt, representing Sheikh Abdul Rahman Rashid Al-Thani, trained by Gassim Al Ghazali and ridden by Alberto Sanna, came from last to win by 3½ lengths in a field of 14.

Held up at the rear for most of the race, Tiding waited patiently as Sussex set the early pace, chased by Warming and Blazing Sunset.

Entering the home straight, he unleashed a devastating turn of foot, sweeping past the field with ease.

Leopards Park under Louis Nomis finished second, 3-lengths ahead of Mia Man in third.

Earlier in the day, Aktolgali with Jefferson Smith won Purebred Arabian Handicap (45-65), Al Jaish under Faleh Boughenaim claimed the Local Thoroughbred Maiden Plate, and Chakib with Salman Fahad Al-Hajri took the Local Purebred Arabian Handicap. Jeb'ran Al Shahania prevailed in the Purebred Arabian Maiden Rated Plate, Mai Dubai with Maikon De Souza edged a thrilling 1400m Thoroughbred Handicap, and Aneed Al Shahania under Lukas Delozier dominated the Local Purebred Arabian Conditions over 2200m.

De Kock stars as Proteas win big to level India T20 series

CHANDIGARH: Opener Quinton de Kock hit a 46-ball 90 to set up South Africa's convincing 51-run win over India in the second T20 international and level the series yesterday.

De Kock's knock laced with five fours and seven sixes powered South Africa to 213-4 after being invited to bat first on the outskirts of Chandigarh.

South Africa bowled out India for 162 in 19.1 overs despite Tilak Varma's valiant 62 off 34 balls as the visitors pulled one back after they lost the opener of the five-match series.

Medium-pace bowler Ottneil Baartman stood out with figures of 4-24.

The left-handed de Kock set the tone for the big win after he put on 83 runs for the second wicket with skipper Aiden Markram, who made 29.

Spinner Varun Chakravarthy bowled opener Reezea Hendricks for eight on his first ball and later dimissed Markram after being hit for two sixes by the captain.

De Kock, who turns 33 on Wednesday, looked in control from the start as he hit left-arm quick Arshdeep Singh for two sixes in the bowlers' first two overs.

The wicketkeeper-batter raised his 17th T20 half-century with a four off Hardik Pandya but missed out on his ton after being run out by his opposite number Jitesh Sharma.

Axar Patel removed Dewald Brevis for 14 before David Miller unleashed his fury with four boundaries off Jasprit Bumrah in a 15-run over and made an unbeaten 20.

Donovan Ferreira finished with a flourish in his unbeaten 30 as he hit Bumrah for two sixes in the 20th over.

Johnson's Grand Slam Track files for bankruptcy

LOS ANGELES: Michael Johnson's troubled Grand Slam Track athletics circuit filed for bankruptcy protection yesterday, saying the move was necessary to stabilize finances after a crisis-hit inaugural season.

US Olympic legend Johnson launched Grand Slam Track earlier this year with the bold goal of transforming athletics, promising a concentrated format featuring more frequent head-to-head races between the world's best athletes.

However the circuit stalled amid financing issues, with Johnson forced to cancel the fourth and final leg of the circuit in Los Angeles following meets in Kingston, Miami and Philadelphia.

Johnson said in August the circuit would not take place in 2026 as planned until athletes waiting to receive prize money for competing in 2025 had been paid.

In a statement yesterday, Grand Slam Track said the circuit had filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in the US state of Delaware in order to "position the league for sustainable long-term growth."

"GST intends to utilize the Chapter 11 process to stabilize its finances, implement a more efficient cost and operating model, and position GST for long-term success," the statement said.

Johnson insisted in the statement that he had not abandoned his dream of a viable version of the circuit.

"Grand Slam Track was founded to create a professional platform that reflects the talent and dedication of this sport's athletes," Johnson said.

"While GST has faced significant challenges that have caused frustrations for many -- myself included -- I refuse to give up on the mission of Grand Slam Track and the future we are building together." — AFP
