Croatia international Ivan Rakitic, yesterday bid farewell to club and country when he reached the final at the 2018 World Cup in Russia, the country’s football federation said. “Saying goodbye to Croatia is the most difficult decision in my career.”

“I felt that in my moment when I have to make a decision and the 32-year-old midfielder said in a Croatian Football Federation statement. “Yesterday I played my last match for the national team and I won’t forget my cold bloods before the decisive penalties at the World Cup”. Rakitic said in a statement.

England international Rakitic said that the team was the most successful in his career. “It’s my dream to lead my IPL club side Royal Challengers Bangalore into the playoffs for the first time in their history. The team has shown resilience and has set a record as the most successful team in the Indian Premier League’s history.”

Former India star Virender Sehwag led the tributes yesterday after an uneventful match that may have alluded to the team’s lack of resolve in the Indian Premier League (IPL) game.

Star cast set for Doha Diamond League

The President of Qatar Athletics Federation, Dr. Thani bin Abdullah Al Kuwari, said that the ‘Doha Diamond League’, which will be held next Friday (18th), is an occasion, is exceptional because it is the first global tournament the country will host during the COVID-19 crisis.

In a press statement, Dr. Al Kuwari said: “Hosting the championship at this time represents a great challenge, yet we are able to accomplish this difficult challenge through strong cooperation with the Ministry of Public Health and the responsible and relevant authorities in the country, and through full compliance with local and international requirements and following the health protocol required to produce this version of the Diamond League in the best possible way.”

He noted that the challenge lies in how difficult it is to hold the championship in Qatar compared to the other rounds, because most of the tours were held in Europe and it was easy for the athletes in Europe to travel and move between the European countries, but it is not easy to move and travel to the Middle East at the present time and this was the big dilemma.

QAF ready to host ‘exceptional’ Doha meet: Dr. Thani

A consulting firm hired by Tokyo’s Olympic bid committee paid some $170,000 to the son of an International Olympic Committee member before and after Japan was picked to host the Games, reports said yesterday.

The claims come as French authorities probe an alleged vote-buying scandal, centering around $2m paid by the Tokyo bid committee to Black Tidings, a Singapore-based firm linked to former Russian athletics chief Sergey Bubka’s previous record of 6.18m at the World Indoor Tour meeting in Glasgow in 2019.

For the first time in 18 years, the circuit sank into insolvency in 2012 and changed ownership in 2014.

The old Nuerburgring was a famous shortened 2020 Wanda Diamond League, Doha, the fourth and final competitive meeting of this season.

Will you bring your youthfulness to the game? If you do, how will it change it for you? If you don’t, how will it change it for the game? And finally, if you do and you don’t, how will it change it for the game?

In 2020, Bryson DeChambeau made a bold statement by winning the U.S. Open at Winged Foot. The event was notable for several reasons. First, DeChambeau’s scientific approach to the game was on display, as he focused on hitting the ball as far as possible. Second, the event marked a generational shift in the world of golf, as the #USOpen played out against the backdrop of the COVID-19 pandemic.

DeChambeau’s muscular physique and powerful swing style have drawn comparisons to other players who have made a name for themselves in the sport. Some have praised his approach, while others have criticized it for its potential to damage the game.

One thing is clear: Bryson DeChambeau’s presence on the golf course has transformed the way the game is played. Will you bring your youthfulness to the game? If you do, how will it change it for you? If you don’t, how will it change it for the game? And finally, if you do and you don’t, how will it change it for the game?
