Diamond League: Doha ready to host last leg of curtailed season

Qatar Athletics Federation (QAF) President Dr Thani Al Kuwari yesterday said strict health protocols, in conjunction with the Ministry of Public Health (MOPH) and the Qatar Olympic Committee (QOC), are in place to ensure the safety of everyone at the final Diamond League event of the season. "The meeting will be held behind closed doors, without fans," he said. "I would like to thank the LOC for their support and commitment. The LOC has helped us in every possible way. The current situation is a new challenge, and we have adapted to it. The LOC has been very helpful and has handled the processes really well."

"At our request, the LOC has told the athletes to stay at their hotels. They have followed the instructions. They have been tested twice before coming here and have been tested again yesterday. All the results came back negative. In addition, the athletes have to wear masks when they are not competing. We are following all the protocols. The most important is that all athletes are healthy. How to underpin the health protocols is important. The LOC has not done anything wrong. It's very difficult to win the competition, and there are many good athletes."

We have resumed sports activity after months of hard work: MOPH official

Dr Abdulwahab Almusleh, Senior Consultant at the Ministry of Public Health (MOPH) said the LOC has provided a fitting finale for the Diamond League at Qatar SC on Friday. "Almosleh said at the Qatar Olympic Committee (QOC) building, yesterday. "From the beginning of September, Qatar started the fourth phase of resuming economic and social activities. Now Qatar has the experience and the knowledge how to resume sports events. We have resumed football and basketball leagues. The sport activities in Qatar, thankfully, are not the reason of the spread of the disease. We are committed to social distancing and restarting all the activities."

"We have to implement the health protocols. The LOC decided not to hold the event for the same reasons. The LOC had the experience and the knowledge to organize a safe event for the health and safety of all." He added.

"The LOC has the experience and the knowledge to organize a safe event for the health and safety of all. The LOC has the knowledge how to organize an event under Covid-19."

Halep raising her game to a higher level after coronavirus shutdown

Simona Halep said she had found inner calm during some coronavirus shutdown and that she had returned to the court with a different perspective on the game.

Halep, 28, who took the title before the WTA Tour’s suspension in March and had not played on the WTA Tour since before losing in the semifinals of the French Open Grand Slam, which had been one of her best in a few years.

The pandemic got me in a place that I really dreamt to be. I’m more mature, more relaxed because I could see that the money is not the goal in general, not in sport. So being able to do this as good as I do in the last seven years, it’s a big thing.

Tampa Bay's power play ultimately snuffed itself out of their ultimate mission to help the Lightning secure a 3-2 win over the Dallas Stars and its National Hockey League's (NHL) Stanley Cup Final series victory.

The Lightning, who had gone 0-2-1 in their past five playoff games, had beenConsistent in their ability to Game Two of a best-of-seven championship series being held in Edmonton to limit the spread of COVID-19 risk.

"This is an emotional game," said Tampa Bay forward Anthony Cirelli.

There were ups and downs. Tampa Bay's known for its ups and downs, but the Lightning have come out on top with their hard work and hard game.

Three first-period goals over a four-minute span, including a power play, set the Lightning on a path to a 5-1 victory.

The goal occurred after the Lightning were awarded a power play due to async thwarting from Brayden Point and Ondrej Palat.

Tampa Bay outscored the Dallas Stars 3-1 in the series' first two games, with the Lightning leading the series 2-0 before the final game.

"It was a great night for our team to get back on track," said Lightning coach Jon Cooper.

"We needed to get a win and we did just that," he added.

The Lightning have won the first two games of the final and will now turn their attention to the Los Angeles Kings in Game 3 on Wednesday.
