Social and Sport Contribution Fund partners with Al Shaqab

The Social & Sport Contribution Fund (Daam) and Al Shaqab, member of Qatar Foundation, will cooperate to support the development of equestrian sport, particularly among youth. The agreement is for a period of one year, with Daam’s commitment being the main supporting partner, in addition to the sport and social activities, and enhancing sustainable social development, in alignment with Qatar National Vision 2030.

Daam is a Supporter of Longines Qatar Equestrian Tour – Doha, which focuses on young riders and aims to inspire Qatar’s next generation of equestrian athletes.

Preparations are under way for the start of Season 4 of the popular annual equestrian series, which is co-organised and hosted by Al Shaqab.

Abdulhaman bin M Abdullah Al Marmal, Chief Executive Officer, Social & Sport Contribution Fund, said: “I am delighted to announce Daam’s agreement with Al Shaqab, which further solidifies our commitment to promoting and growing Qatar’s rich equestrian heritage.”

“Equestrian sport truly represents Qataris, our tradition, and our culture, and this is reflected in the competitions and events we organise: from the development of equestrian sport in Qatar, particularly among the youth. This investment in the youth, in terms of helping them to understand and appreciate Qatar’s culture and traditions, will play a positive role in enhancing social development,” Al Marmal said.

Khalifa Al Attiya, Executive Director, Al Shaqab, also expressed his gratitude. “We are honored to welcome The Social & Sport Contribution Fund on board as a supporter of Al Shaqab, and we look forward to a collaborative and rewarding partnership. Al Shaqab, as a centre of equestrian excellence, greatly values Daam’s commitment to the development of horsemanship in Qatar, particularly among the youth.”

“Al Shaqab is committed to its role in promoting and growing equestrian sport in Qatar, and we believe that Daam’s support will play a key role in encouraging young riders, and ultimately keeping alive an intrinsic part of Qatar’s history, culture and tradition,” Al Attiya said.

Qatar powering ahead with 2022 World Cup preparations

Khalid Al Naami, official spokesperson of the Supreme Committee for Delivery & Legacy, says Qatar remain ahead of schedule when it comes to delivering the infrastructure required for the FIFA World Cup and are well on course to delivering everyday well in advance of the launch of the 2022 FIFA World Cup Qatar.

Two venues built from scratch - Al Bayt Stadium and Al Rayyan Stadium - are getting their final touch-ups.

The hosts of the next football spectacle have already picked three World Cup venues with another three slated to be completed by the end of next year.

Announcing the stadium with the unifying power of football in the wake of the coronavirus pandemic, shows everything that there is light at the end of the tunnel and bright future ahead. We are proud to pay tribute to the frontline workers who remain at the forefront in the battle against coronavirus, and who have given us a remarkable example of processing during such a difficult moment. And we are looking forward to bringing the world together - at this stadium and others - using the unifying power of football in the region and the world.

The completion ceremony of the new Al Bayt Stadium was recently announced to be the opening ceremony venue and Al Rayyan Stadium - which will be completed by the end of next year.

And that’s not all - two more stadiums, Al Janoub Stadium and Ras Abu Aboud; the first FIFA World Cup venue history with a fully demountable FIFA World Cup infrastructure - are getting their final touch-ups.

The two imposing structures will be ready for use before the year is out, Khalid Al Naami, official spokesperson of the Supreme Committee for Delivery & Legacy, told The Peninsula in an exclusive interview.

Work on FIFA World Cup infrastructure is proceeding as per schedule. Overall project completion stands at more than 85%, with over two years to go until kick-off.

This 22-team invitational tournament is scheduled to kick-off on 2-10 December 2021. The tournament is to be held at six stadiums which will be completed in 2021.

The tournament will provide a vital opportunity for fans, players and the international media to experience the tournament despite the coronavirus pandemic.

Chairman of the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022 LLC was presented to FIFA Council members by H E Hassan Al Thawadi, Secretary General of the Supreme Committee for Delivery & Legacy and Chairman of the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022 LLC.

The FIFA Council subsequently approved the formation of the competition.

The creation of this pan-Arab tournament also underscores our long-standing commitment that the FIFA World Cup 2022 will be a tournament that benefits the entire Arab world, one that showcases the beauty of the regions of the Arab world in the competition that exists for the game.

The construction of all the training sites is complete and has now moved to the tournament preparations mode to prepare for the Team Base Camps. The FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022 LLC will have 40 Team Base Camps Training Sites from which teams can select, in addition to one Training Site for match officials.
